The annual meeting of the Louisville conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, will convene at Hartford, Ohio county, Kentucky, Wednesday, September 29, and remain in session one week. The conference will be presided over by Bishop Adkins and a large number of ministers and laymen will be in attendance.

Judge Lewis L. Walker, of Lancaster, is a Republican who comes from a Democratic family, while his opponent for Lieutenant Governor, Jas. D. Black, is a Democrat who comes from a Republican family. Judge Black can't be beat by a Walker. It will take a runner to do it.

A farmer at Lafayette, Ind., turned loose a double-barrel shotgun into a crowd of boys who were stealing his watermelons Sunday night and wounded seven of them. At Anderson, Ind., the same night, Joe Collins, aged 11, shot and badly wounded a larger boy who was raiding his melon patch.

A decisive battle is in progress on the front, the Germans attempting to cut off and destroy the Russian army that defended Vilna. A constant artillery bombardment is in progress in the west on both sides and the Germans are taking part in the artillery fight across the Danube with Serbians.

Matriculation began at Vanderbilt University in all departments Monday, Sept. 27, and classes begin Sept. 29 in all departments except the department of dentistry, which opens Oct. 1. The opening is two weeks later than usual, making a shorter school year. Commencement day remains June 14.

Senator and Mrs. John Sharp Williams have sent out invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Sallie Shelby, to Lieut. Joel William Buckley, U. S. N., on the afternoon of Wednesday, Oct. 6, at 5:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church at Yazoo City, Miss. There will be a small reception after the ceremony at Senator Williams' plantation near Yazoo City.

Because her husband had a fishing fever and would go angling and stay away from her weeks at the time, according to her allegations, a Memphis Chancellor granted Grace Cate a divorce Monday morning from L. Cate. She said that she was only fourteen years old when she married Cate, that she secured a divorce from him and later married him again. She gave her age on the witness stand as only eighteen years. The reason given for this divorce should not be considered legal and sufficient. Having married the man twice the silly young thing should not have been humored further by the courts.

CAN SHIP LIQUOR
TO DRY COUNTIESInterstate Commerce Protects
Those Who Buy For Their Personal Use.

The United States supreme court has handed down a clean-cut decision in favor of the contention of the liquor interests that liquor can be shipped by express into the state of Kentucky when it is intended for the personal use of those to whom it is shipped.

This case, which had become a celebrated one, has large national significance because it is the first expression of the highest tribunal bearing upon the Webb-Kenyon federal statute.

In a sense the decision is a big victory for Lawrence Maxwell and Joseph S. Graydon, of Cincinnati, who represented the Adams Express company in the litigation and who also are allied as attorneys for liquor interests. The court, in a unanimous decision handed down by Justice Day, sustains the theory on which they based their case. The other side of the case was taken by James Garnett, attorney general of Kentucky, and Wayne Wheeler, attorney for the Anti-Saloon league of America, intervened in behalf of that organization.

The supreme court does not pass directly on the constitutionality of the Webb-Kenyon law, but inferentially it upholds that statute and gives it a strict limitation as applying only to prohibit the shipment of liquor in interstate commerce when such shipment is in violation of the law of the state to which it is consigned.

Colds Do Not Leave Willingly.

Because a cold is stubborn is no reason why you should be. Instead of "weating" it out, get sure relief by taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Dangerous bronchial and lung ailments often follow a cold which has been neglected at the beginning. As your body faithfully battles those cold germs, no better aid can be given than the use of this remedy. Its merit has been tested by old and young. Get a bottle to-day. 50c. and $1.00.—Advertisement.

New I. C. Branch.

There is a promising project on foot to induce the I. C. R. R. to build a line from Dawson to Madisonville. Two thirds of the way there is already a coal line track, and from statements in both the Dawson and Madisonville papers there would not be over six miles of line to build to complete the connection. Such a line would open up much undeveloped coal lands and also give the I. C. a chance at the great coal mines right at Madisonville.—Paducah News-Democrat.

A Pine Whooping Cough Remedy.

Mother's, Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is just the remedy for your children's cold ailments. The fact is that pine is a quick enemy of cold conditions. Its qualities loosen the mucus in the throat, soothe the lungs and open up the air passages. The combination of honey, soothing and pleasant, with the loosening pine quality makes this an ideal cough remedy for children. Each passing year brings for it, new friends. A family of growing children cannot afford to be without it. 25c. a bottle.—Advertisement.

Ends Her Life.

Fearing that she would be returned to the Reform School at Greendale if arrested, Jessie Stevens, a sixteen-year-old girl, committed suicide by jumping into the Ohio river at Owensboro.

McMinnville, Tenn.—Mrs. Ocie Jett of this place, writes: "I don't believe I would be living today, if it hadn't been for Cardui. I lay in bed 27 days, and the doctor came every day, but he did me no good. Finally, he advised an operation, but I would not consent, and instead took Cardui. Now I am going about the house, doing my work, and even do my washing. Cardui worked wonders in my case. I am in better health than for five years." Cardui is a strengthening tonic for women. It relieves pain, tones up the nerves, builds strength. Try it. At your druggist's.—Advertisement.

FUSES BLOWN OUT
ON SUBMARINE F-4Probable Cause of Disaster in Honolulu Harbor Discovered in Searching Wreck.

Honolulu, Sept. 19.—From an unofficial, but apparently trustworthy source, it was learned that electricians who have been making an examination of the submarine F 4, lost outside Honolulu harbor Mar. 25 and now in dry dock, discovered that the fuses on all four batteries had been blown out, indicating that this was the cause of the disaster which resulted in the death of the vessel's crew of twenty-two men.

BOTHERED WITH FLEAS
APPEALS TO COMMISSIONNorthern Indiana Man Asks An Unusual Favor.

Indianapolis, Sept. 17.—Unusual duties have often developed on the public service commission of Indiana, but the limit was reached when that body was asked to assume the role of flea abater. A man who had rented a house in a northern Indiana city wrote a letter to the commission, in which he asked to have his rent refunded and "other relief afforded" as soon as possible, because of an influx of fleas in his new building. The owners of the property would give him no redress, he wrote, and so he placed his case before the commission.

Circuit Judge Benton Orders
Accounts of Successful Opponent Brought Into The Court.

Winchester, Ky., Sept. 20.—A sensation in the Clark Circuit Court was an order from Circuit Judge Benton, on motion of the foreman of the Clark county grand jury, Stanley T. Prewitt, to the sheriff of Madison county, summoning Paul Burnam, cashier of the Southern National Bank, to come before the jury and bring with him the accounts of Judge W. R. Shackelford, Anna Clay Shackelford and Bates Shackelford, from July 1, 1915, to September 1, 1915. It is the purpose of Judge Benton to make a thorough investigation to discover if Shackelford used any money in his race for the Democratic nomination, in which Benton was defeated.

M'PHERSON-SCHLOTMAN

Madisonville Young Lady Widely Known In Hopkinsville, Becomes a Bride.

Madisonville, Ky., Sept. 20.—Wednesday night at 8 o'clock Miss Margaret Elizabeth McPherson, of this city, and Mr. Robert Lewis Schlotman, of Nortonville, were quietly married by Rev. Sam Jones, pastor of the First Christian church, at the pastor's home on Seminary street. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only a few intimate friends and relatives and came as a great surprise to the many friends of the bride and groom, both of whom are socially prominent. The bridal pair left soon after the wedding for the honeymoon trip through the east.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel D. McPherson, of North Main street, and the groom is widely known in mining circles, being vice-president of the Nortonville Coal Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Schlotman will return to Nortonville about the first of October and already many social events in their honor are being planned.
